SWITCHBACK

Artistic Development Exchange Programme

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Motionhouse dancers come from a wide range of backgrounds and training, and have many skills and influences. We want our dancers to experience varied and ever-changing stimuli, both in training and when creating new work, and so we try to invite external teachers to train them whenever it's possible. We regularly create skills sharing opportunities with other physical performers and this informs our approach to skills development.

As a company we are keen to offer continuous learning and development opportunities for our own dancers, but try to provide lots of opportunities for the wider dance community too.

We are aware that there is an increasing need for affordable rehearsal space and training opportunities across the profession. This is where the SWITCHBACK Artistic Development Exchange Programme comes into play...
